For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven.
A time to be born, and a time to die . . .
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose,
a time to keep, and a time to cast away . . .
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
and a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

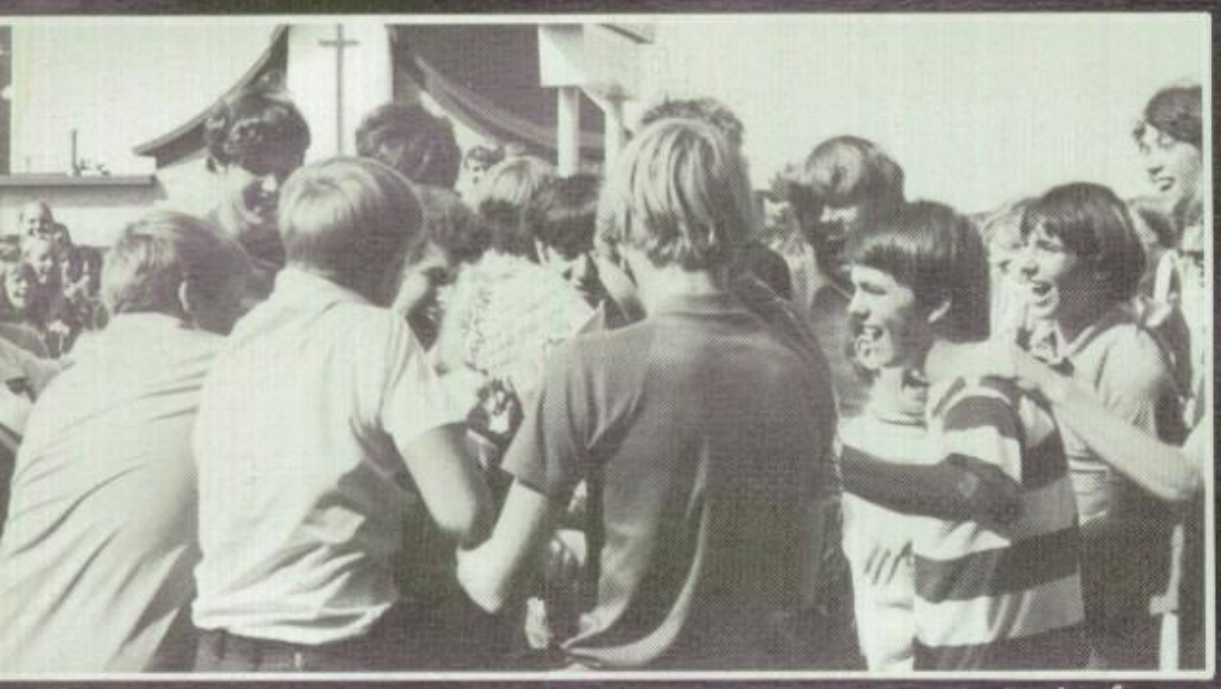
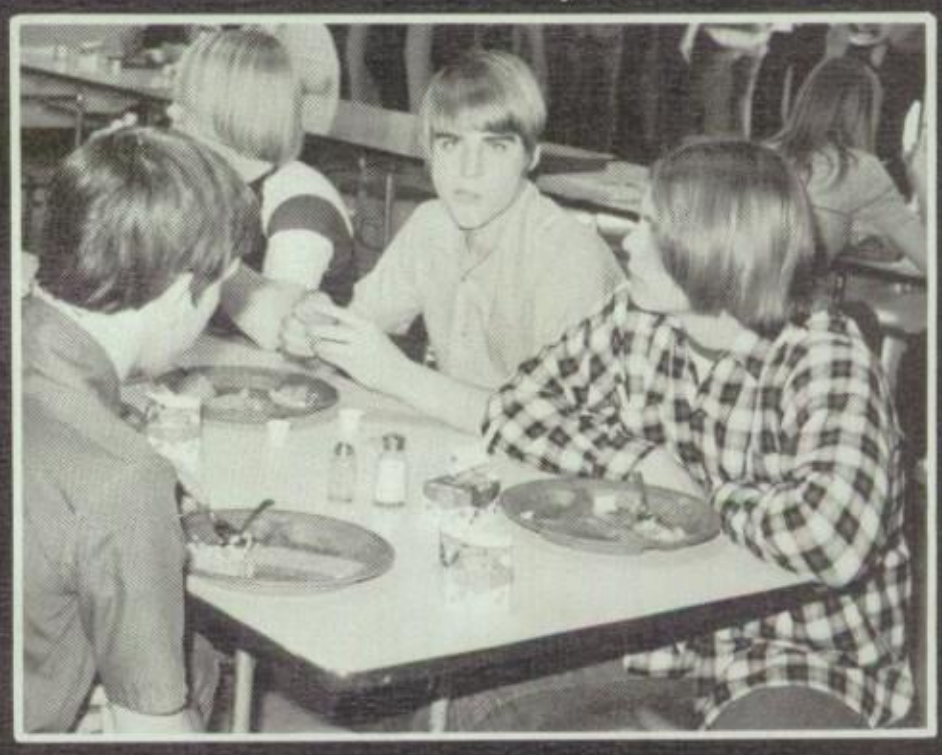
Remembering The Times



The boys win the contest, and Joleen wins the prize--a pie in the face.

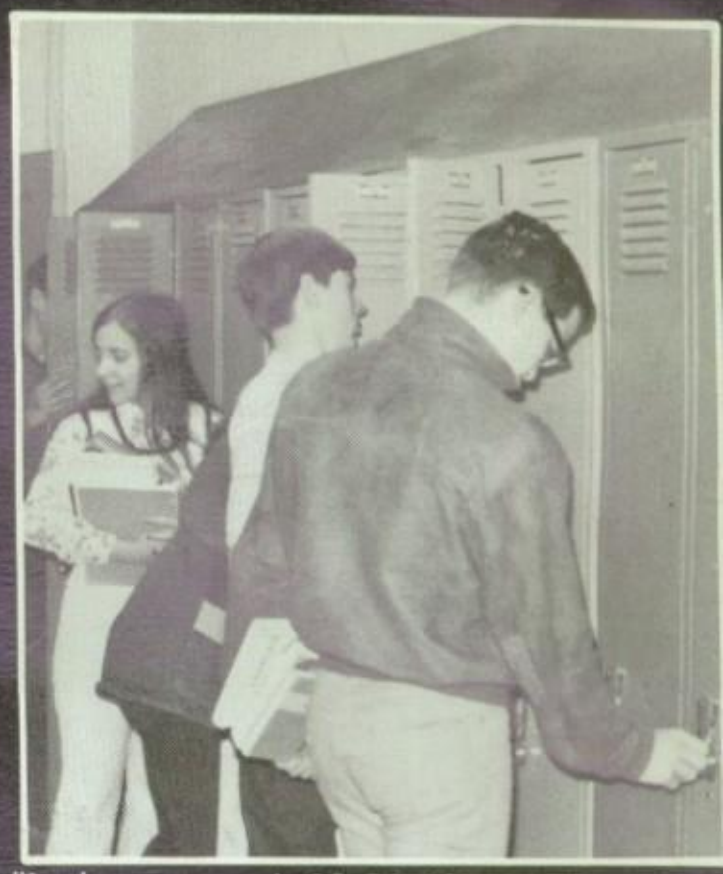
"We must, we must, increase our _____!"
Peanut butter makes you what?

"Who? Me? What fire alarm?".

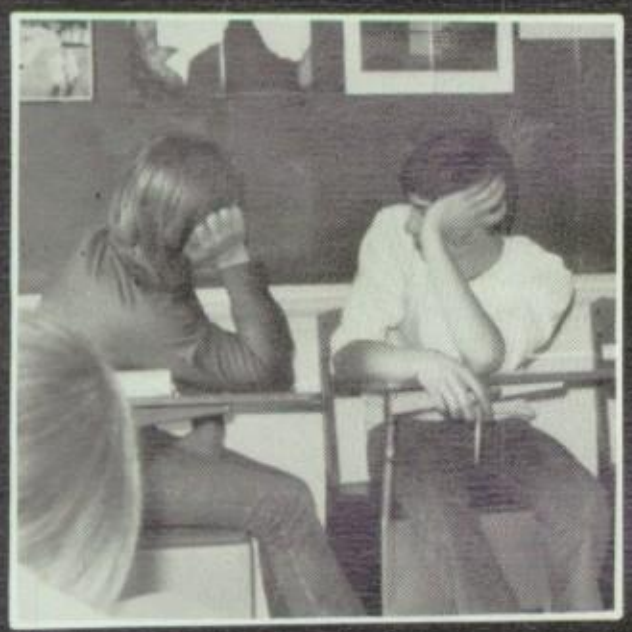


See no evil, speak no evil, hear no evil--or get put in closed study hall!

Either this crew studied for a change, or they've all got to go to the restroom.



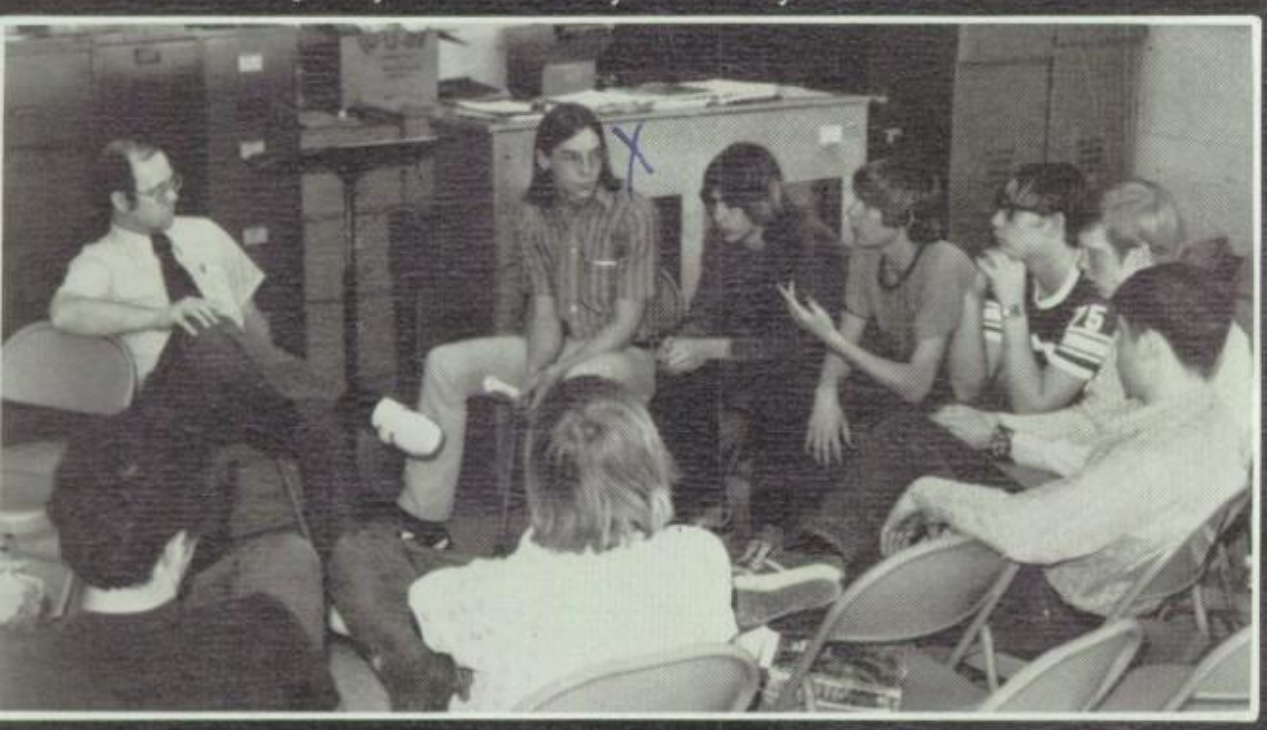
"Let's see--was it 36-24-36? No, that's not it!"



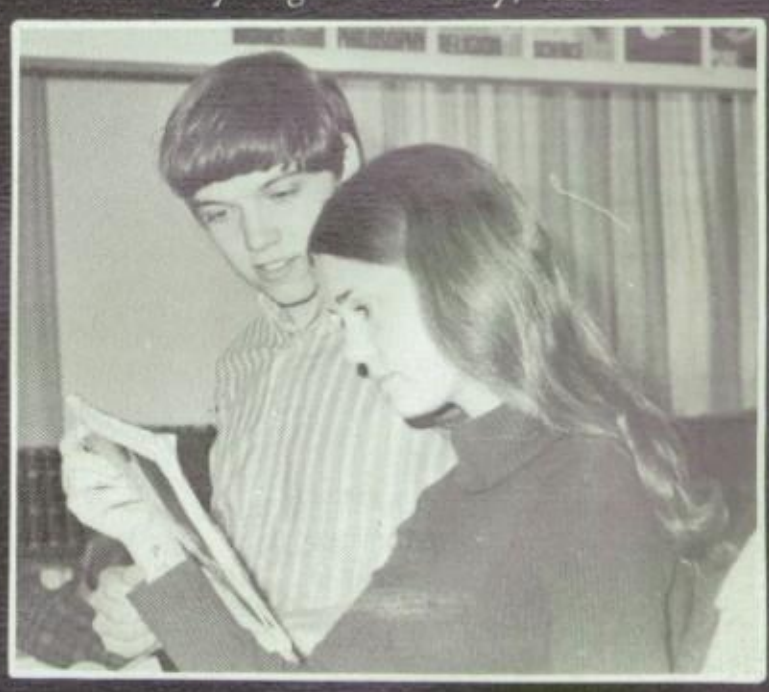
"Fellas--this isn't what Miss Psota had in mind when she assigned that story-telling unit."

Our ecology-oriented menus--everything has been recycled.

"I expect you wonder why I called you all here."



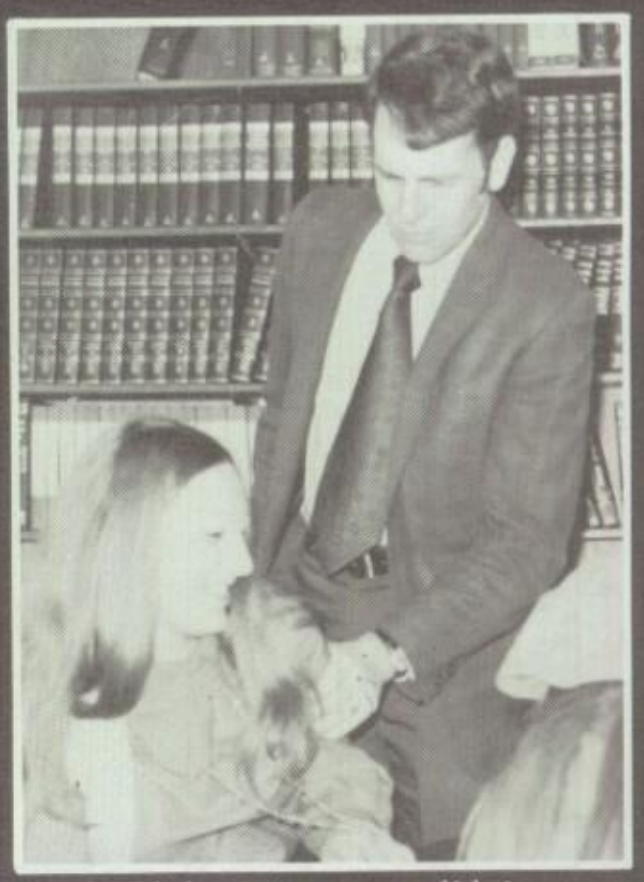
"It says 'Spring is the time when . . .' What's a young man's fancy, Bill?"



While the cat's away, the rats will play.

Sure the junior high can handle open study hall.

Tell the senior girls "A way to a man's heart is through his stomach" and look what happens.



"You did volunteer, didn't you, Linda?"

"Tim, only someone really close to you could ask you this--Would you put your shoes back on, please?"

And another original history report is prepared--compliments of the WORLD BOOK.

Looks like Bruce Fajen and Mike Sorensen never did make it to detention.

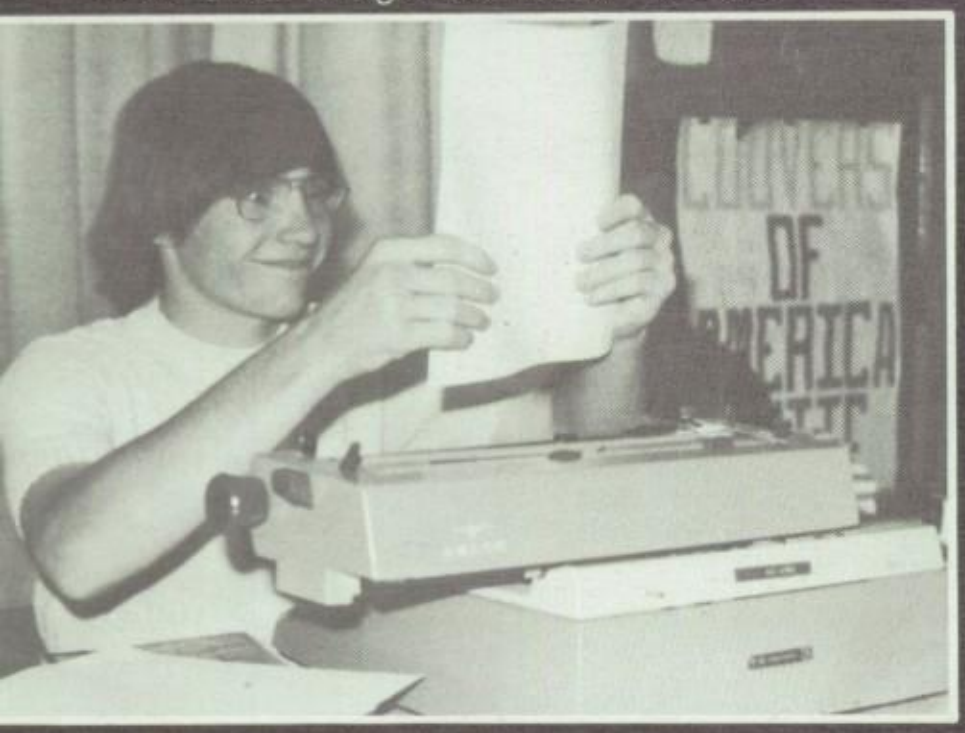
Cris B. puts the jump on Jim S.

It's a good thing the Cardettes could play basketball better than they could spell.

"Yeah! Those two glorious words, 'The End.'"



"But Ron, you've already had mumps, measles, chicken pox, London flu & Hong Kong flu--what is it this time?"

Senior girls set up offense for powder puff football game.

Bill Stupfell is judged as candidate for mock Homecoming King election.

Homecoming 1973

The 1973 Homecoming parade and football game were held Saturday, October 14. Pre-Homecoming week activities included a Wednesday night powder puff football game, which was won by the sophomore and junior girls. Friday night, a bonfire pep rally was held in a downtown parking lot. Following cheers and a mock homecoming king election, a Tri-Center Trojan was burned in effigy.

Saturday's 1:30 parade was one of the largest ever assembled. The floats, which displayed the parade theme, "Disney on Parade," were enjoyed by young and old.

The festivities were climaxed with the crowning of Miss Joetta Boyer as 1972 Homecoming Queen during the half time show of the football game. The Cardinals, down after two previous tough games, weren't prepared for the Tri-Center attack and lost 40-20. A dance was held later in the high school gymnasium.

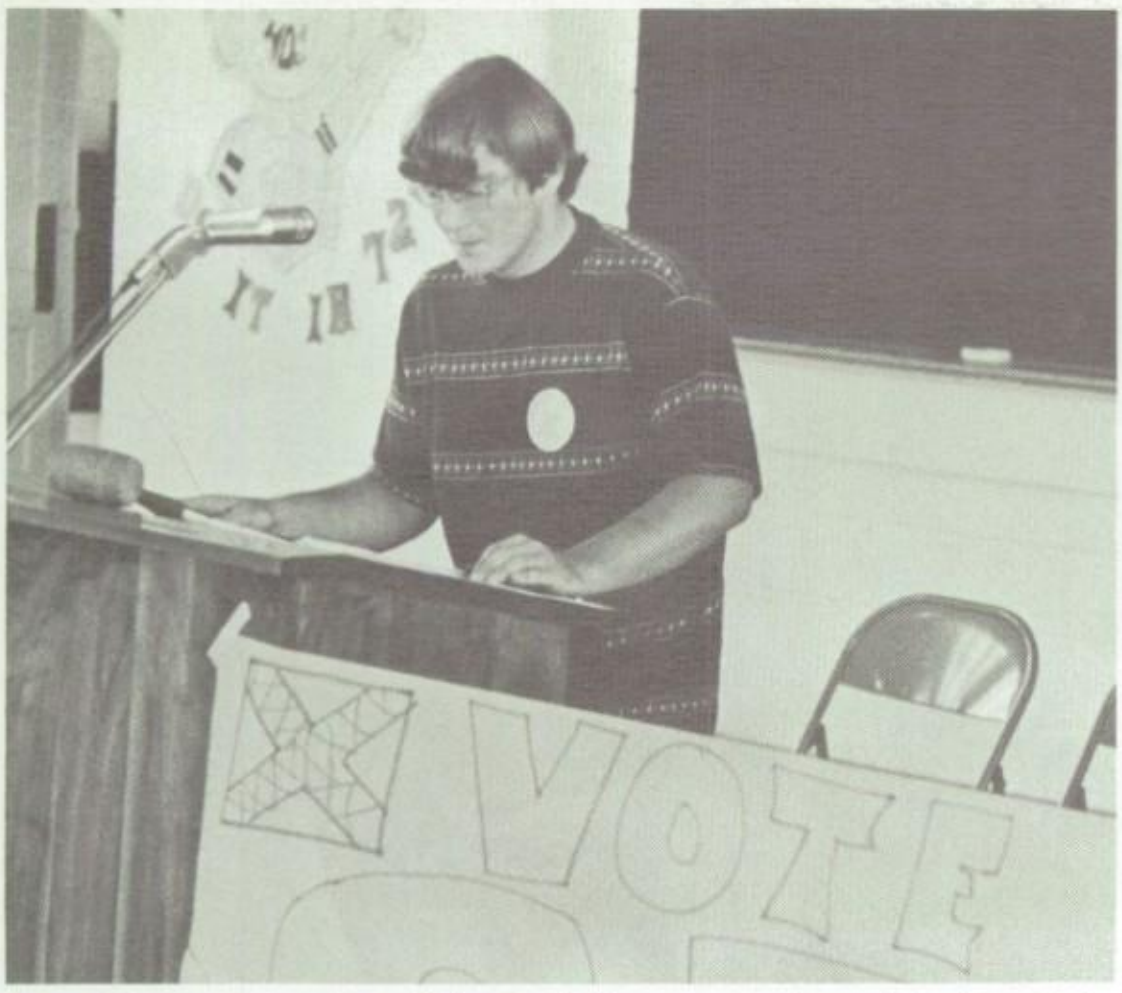
Politics Enter Election, and Hansen Emerges As Student Body President



Terry Hansen, member of the Eagle Party, was elected Student Body President.

The day-long student body election, directed by Miss Vicky Psota, speech teacher, had all the elements of a national election--roll call, nominating speeches, caucuses, etc. In the first balloting, none of the original three candidates had the necessary majority of votes (133). Jim Stewart and Mark Hoegh then requested their names be replaced on the ballot by Terry Hansen's.

Meanwhile, the junior high, realizing they could account for 103 of the necessary 133 votes, pressured the candidates by announcing they would cast their votes in a block. After each of the candidates addressed their closed caucus, the junior high swung their 103 votes to Terry Hansen, which enabled him to win in the final balloting.

Julie and Billy, having married, are expecting a child. In an attempt to make some fast money to support this new child, Billy schemes with sailor Jigger Craigin (above) to rob Mr. Baskins, local mill owner. The two thieves are discovered during their attempt and Billy is shot and killed.

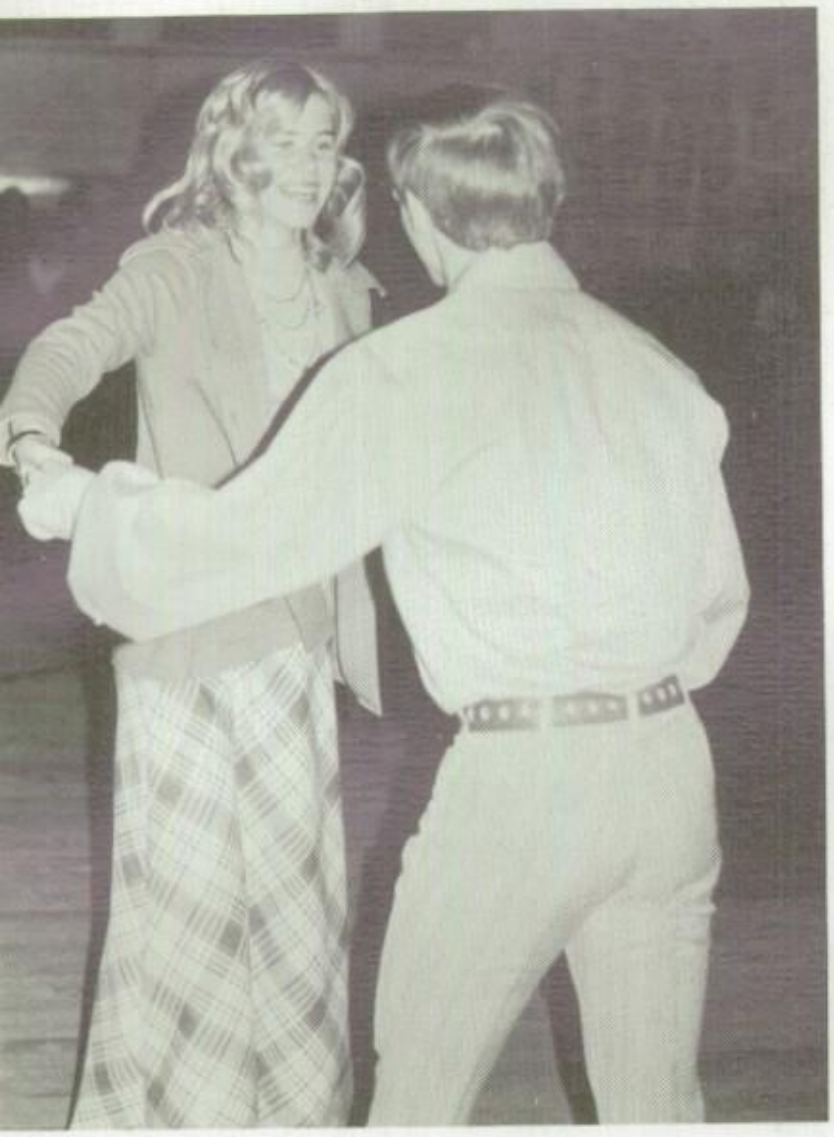
(Left) As Julie mourns his death, Billy enters his afterlife and meets Brother Joshua, who offers to let him return to earth once more to make amends for his wrongdoing.

Julie's Aunt Nettie comforts her with "You'll Never Walk Alone."

On his return to earth, Billy arrives for his daughter's eighth grade graduation. He hears the speaker remind the students that they should judge others on their merits only--not on their background. Comforted that Julie and his daughter can make it on their own, he departs.

FHA Calendar Dance



Ronee Andersen and Mike Sukup dance to music furnished by the Aksarben Bridge.

A small number of couples attended the annual FHA dance on January 15 in the high school gym.

The audience enjoyed popcorn and cokes while the band played contemporary tunes at the Pops Concert.

Concerts

The vocal and music departments presented a number of concerts throughout the year. In addition to those concerts pictured, the elementary students presented "Doin' the Christmas Thing," on December 20 and vocal students presented their state contest selections in a spring concert. The band appeared in a winter concert and presented selections from their Missouri tour at a spring concert.

Mr. Bateman directs the band at the annual Christmas Concert on December 18.

Nineteen-year-old Olli Melanen arrived in Treynor on August 6. Olli's family, his father, mother, and one sister, live in Lahti, Finland (a large city in southern Finland). While visiting here, Olli stayed with the Don Stupfell family. Olli, our "Flying Fin," set many distance running records at THS and placed third in the 2-mile run at the State Outdoor Track meet. Olli's future plans include one more year of high school at home in Finland, completing military service, and entering college to study languages. In addition, he aspires to compete in the 1976 or 1980 Olympics.

Miss Diomar Teresa Pinto dos Santos had little difficulty getting acquainted at THS when she arrived in March. Besides her parents, she has a brother and sister at home in Valinhos (a city in SaoPaulo, Brazil). The Raymond Guttau family hosted Diomar while she attended THS. Seventeen-year-old Diomar hopes to return to the U.S. for her senior year. Ultimately, she would like to attend college to study to be a teacher.

Miss Vicky Psota

Mrs. Mary Lou Howell has been at THS four years. This past year she taught four levels of French in addition to sophomore and senior English. She was also sponsor of the cheerleaders and the freshmen class. Mrs. Howell initiated a new Individual Reading class for seniors during the second semester and a new introductory French class for seventh graders.

Another fourth-year teacher at THS, Mr. Ken Long, taught seventh, eighth, and ninth grade English. Emphasizing individuality and creativity, Mr. Long,s classes concentrated on units including creative writing, advertising, drama, multi-media, science fiction, listening and modern novel.

In her second year of teaching at THS, Miss Vicky Psota taught junior and senior English and sophomore and junior speech. She also directed the musical and the spring play. With her help, all THS speech students who entered district competition advanced to state speech contest.

Mrs. Howell helps sophomores Karen Schnepel and Julie Deitchler.

Mr. Long enjoyed his round-circle discussion groups.

Miss Psota appears skeptical as Bob Saffell explains his missing assignment.

Math

This was Mr. Roger Andersen's second year of teaching at Treynor. He taught Algebra I and II, geometry, senior math, and physics. In addition, Mr. Andersen coached baseball, was assistant basketball coach, and seventh grade sponsor.

Another second-year faculty member at THS was Mr. Dale Sandquist. Mr. Sandquist taught seventh and eighth grade math, general math, and junior high girls' physical education. His extra responsibilities included head girls' basketball coach, girls' track coach, girls' softball coach, and junior high girls' athletics.

Senior math students competed in a national math examination given in the fall. Reed Olsen was recognized for his achievement on the test.

While geometry and algebra students were working with their formulas and equations, the general math class completed units including purchasing stocks and road-map math.

Mr. Ken Winkler

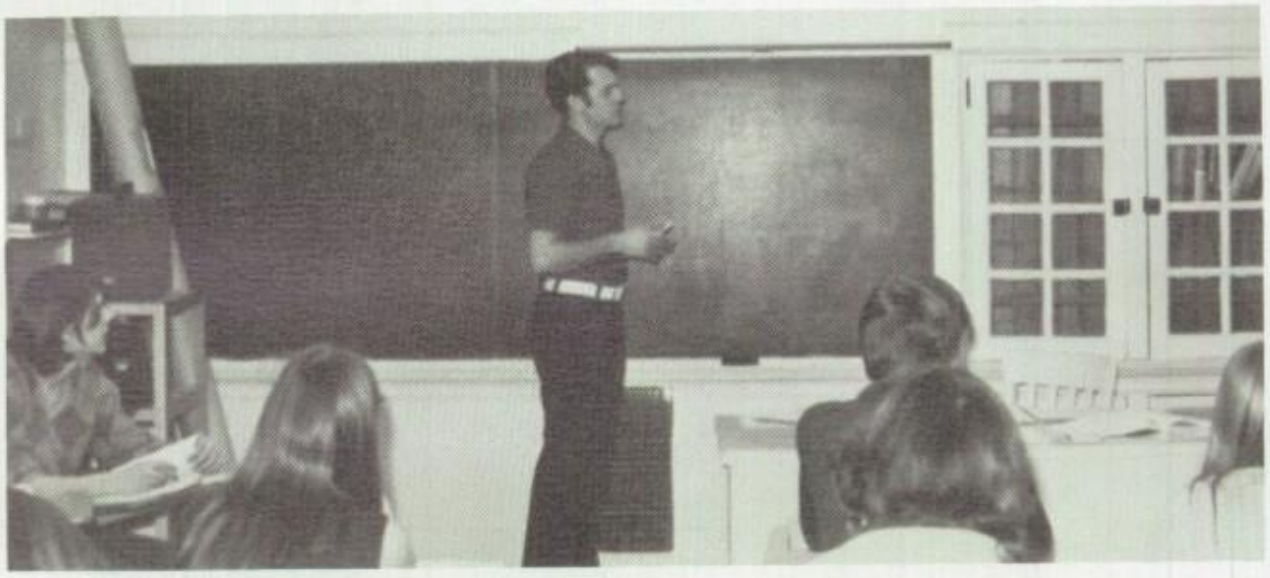
Social Studies

After three years of serving as a guidance counselor and coach, Mr. Fairchild assumed a new role at THS this past year--world history teacher. His counseling duties included helping students with class scheduling, arranging college-entrance exams, and advising seniors with career plans.

A 10-year veteran at THS, Mr. Harold Rehurek taught seventh grade world geography, eighth grade American history, and junior high reading. He also co-sponsored the junior class. Junior high field trips to Boys' Town, Joslyn Art Museum, and the state capitol supplemented their classroom activities.

Another new member of the THS faculty, Mr. Ken Winkler taught American history, government, economics, sociology, and boys' physical education. His extra responsibilities this past year were head football coach, boys' track coach, junior high boys' competitive athletics, and eighth grade sponsor.

Mr. Rehurek helps seventh grade boys with projects and reports.



Mr. Fairchild explains a point from a chapter in world history.

Mr. Winkler helps junior Claralda Nottley, an American history student.

Sciences

A member of the THS faculty for the past nine years, Mr. Gary Guttau taught seventh grade biological science, eighth grade physical science and ninth grade earth science. Mr. Guttau, director of the local science fair, received a $100 award for his contribution to science education at the state Hawkeye fair in the spring.

In addition to teaching biology and chemistry, Mrs. Cindy Krukenberg, a first-year teacher at Treynor, also served as sophomore class sponsor. Mrs. Krukenberg accompanied five senior students to a UNI Science Symposium early in the fall.

Along with their classroom projects, science students profited from field trips to DeSoto Bend, the Ag Research farm, Western Electric, Pepsi Cola, etc.

Mrs. Naomi Bolton

Home Economics

A veteran member of the THS faculty, Mrs. Naomi Bolton, taught six different levels of Home Economics this past year, including a Boys' Home Ec class. In addition, she served as FHA advisor.

While freshman girls participated in a comprehensive study of home ec, sophomores studied foods and housing. Juniors studied clothing during the first semester and ran a day-care center as part of a family living unit in the spring. Senior home ec students worked on approved independent projects related to their needs and interests. Senior boys enjoyed testing their own cooking and sewing ties and bathrobes.

Field trips to Westroads and the Hilton Hotel and guest speakers including a barber, a beautician, and a florist supplemented the year's activities.

Freshman girls entertain their little guests as part of a child care unit.

Terry Hansen has his hair cut and styled as senior boys' home ec class observe.

Eighth grade girls host their classmates as part of a party planning unit.

Industrial Arts

Mr. Robert Howell

In his fourth year of teaching at THS, Mr. Bob Howell was in charge of the industrial arts program. His classes included: eighth grade--exploratory; freshmen--drawing and woods; sophomores--woods and metals; juniors--metals; seniors--power mechanics and independent study projects. In addition, Mr. Howell served as freshman class sponsor and taught an Adult Education class in woodworking.

This past year an independent study program was initiated for seniors in industrial arts. Student projects were displayed at the Industrial Arts Fair at ISD and at the spring Arts Festival.

Mr. Howell helps freshman Eldon Sukup with a drawing.

Among the students exhibiting outstanding work at ISD Fair were Mike Sorensen, Mark Murphy, Tracy Rath, and Ken Bohrer.

Seniors Dennis Browning and Ron Wood work on a project.

Mrs. Joyce Fisher

Business

Mrs. Joyce Fisher, a third year teacher at THS, taught Typewriting I and II, shorthand, office practice, bookkeeping and consumer education. She also acted as yearbook advisor. This past year the Business Ed. Dept. relocated in the junior high building and students enjoyed using new L-shaped typing tables. Business students visited the Federal Reserve Bank, Sayers Volkswagon, Mutual of Omaha, Union Pacific and Merrill Lynch. Kathy Sorensen and Reed Olsen won shorthand and bookkeeping awards at the Lewis Central Invitational.

Typing I students help with mid-year cleaning of machines.

Miss Cheryl Stidwell

Art

Miss Cheryl Stidwell initiated her teaching career at THS this year. She taught Art I and II, seventh grade art, and also had charge of the elementary art program. In addition, she acted as eighth grade sponsor. Art students worked on units including painting, pottery, drawing, weaving, macrame, etc. Some of the more outstanding projects were exhibited in the school's display case during the year and at the spring Arts Festival. Mark Raney, NWMSC student teacher, worked with Miss Stidwell during the second semester. Liz Green was recognized as Outstanding Art Student of 1973.

Advanced Art students discuss new ideas for projects with Miss Stidwell.

Supplementary Staff

Mr. Steve Lesan, a third year staff member at THS, was in charge of the library program for grades K-12. In addition, he co-sponsored thejunior class.

Mrs. Eileen Behrens has taught special education at THS for the past five years. Mrs. Behrens works with students in both buildings offering them highly individualized instruction.

In his first year at Treynor, Mr. Mike Beaman taught high school boys' and girls' physical education. He was also head wrestling coach and assistant football coach.

Music

Mrs. Vicki Grote, first year faculty member, directed vocal music activities for grades K-12 this past year. Dividing her time between both buildings, Mrs. Grote spent many hours directing practice sessions for the school musical, the annual Christmas concerts and state music contest. In addition, she served as seventh grade class sponsor.

In his third year as instrumental music director, Mr. Richard Bateman was responsible for the instrumental program for grades 4-12. Besides devoting his efforts to preparing the marching band and concert bands for their numerous performances, Mr. Bateman also worked with the fifth and sixth grade bands and a fourth grade tonette band. Much of his time was spent giving instrumental lessons to individual band students.

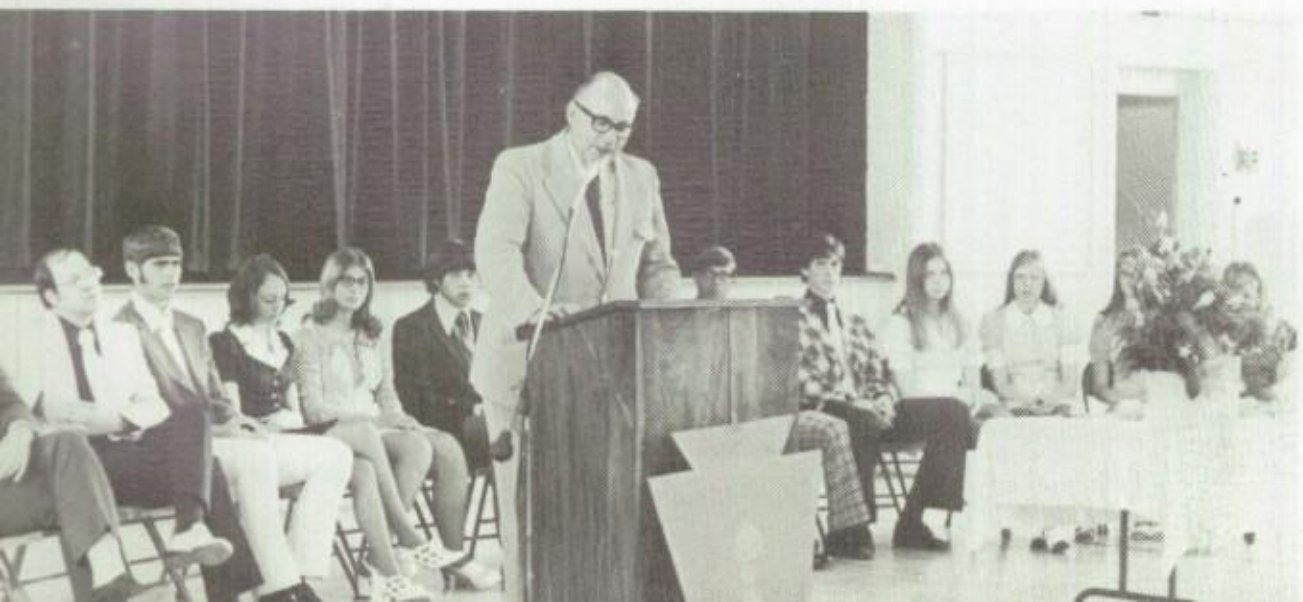
National Honor Society

National Honor Society membership numbered eleven students through the year; twelve new members were initiated on May 11.

Officers included: Don Morse--President, Kim Goos--Vice-President, Susan Scheel--Secretary, and Diane Parker--Treasurer. Mr. Figg served as advisor to the group.

Honor Society activities during the year included two field trips--one to Creighton University in Omaha and a two-day trip to ISU at Ames. The campus visits offered students a chance to get acquainted with the physical facilities and educational programs of area colleges.

Dr. Phil Slagle, Director of Area XIII Media Center, presented the initiation address.



Student Council

Student Council, with a representation of 19 students, was directed by Mr. Jerry Figg. Two student-elected representatives and each class president comprised the group.

Officers included Terry Hansen, President; Mike Sukup, Vice-President; Susan Scheel, Secretary; and Renee Heuwinkel, Treasurer.

The Homecoming Dance and the spring volleyball tournament were among some of the group's major contributions. They spent much of their time discussing student welfare issues including study halls, lunchroom behavior, dress code procedures, etc.

Future Homemakers of America

To help finance the band for the Calendar Dance, FHA girls took orders for and baked cakes, cookies, etc.

The Future Homemakers of America had another active year. They sponsored a cakewalk and sold tupperware to finance their social projects, which included sponsoring the Calendar Dance, attending "Butterflies Are Free," and enjoying a pizza party.

In addition, they decorated the Queen's float for homecoming and participated in several educational programs. Mrs. Naomi Bolton advised the group, which numbered 25 members. Officers included Joetta Boyer--President, Joyce Anderson--Vice-President, Liz Green--Secretary, Becky Green--Treasurer, and Jan Lemons--Historian.

Cadette Drill Team

The Cadette drill team, directed by Mrs. Mary Figg and Mrs. Carol Arnold, consisted of 12 girls and one alternate. The girls were selected on ability from both junior and senior high school.

Attired in red-and-white uniforms, they performed during half time of several home basketball games. In addition to marching and dancing to music, the girls did precision drills to drum cadence.

All the initial planning and rugged practice sessions paid off, as the Cadettes were warmly received and highly praised by all who saw them perform. THS is, indeed, proud of the Cadettes.

Left to right--J. Anderson, K. Schnepel, S. Schnepel, L. Sorensen, T. Sudmann, C. Hessel, K. Goos, Mrs. Fisher, D. Parker, V. Wainwright, R. Heuwinkel, M. Howe, C. Buckelew, J. Boyer.

Yearbook Staff

Executive Editors Diane Parker and Kim Goos guided the yearbook staff.

The 1973 Cardinal staff would like to thank the many students and staff members who cooperated with them in the production of this book; and in particular, they would like to thank Mr. Dick Harding, professional photographer, for his patience and dedication to our effort.

Missouri Concert Tour

Band parents sponsored a carnival to help raise funds for the trip.

Band students practiced many hours to prepare for their concert programs.

Two chartered buses loaded with concert band members, their director, and parent chaperones, left Treynor on a Thursday at noon to begin their northwest Missouri concert tour. That afternoon, the band presented a program at Ravenwood. Later they toured the Benedictine Monastery at Conception. That night they stayed on the NWMSC campus at Maryville.

Friday, they presented concerts at Parnell and Rosendale and went on to Kansas City. The group toured the Kansas City International Airport and went to see "Man of LaMancha." After spending Friday night at the Mulebauch Hotel, they returned home Saturday evening.

Hard work and long hours of practice paid off for the cheerleaders as they performed with poise, precision, and gymnastic skill.

Fund-raising projects, including the sale of stadium seats, provided the funds necessary for the squad to attend a summer workshop at NWMSC.

During the year, they sacrificed four hours a week to practice for games, meets, and rallies. No doubt about, under the direction of Mrs. Howell, the girls did more than their share to reflect THS pride.

Captains of the 1972 squad included Bill Stupfell, Jim Winchell, Terry Hansen, and Jim Stewart.

The 1972 Treynor Cardinals, under Head Coach Ken Winkler, assisted by Mike Beaman, finished with a 5-3-1 record in the newly-formed Western Iowa Conference. Under a new coaching staff, a new conference, and the pressure of 32 consecutive victories, the Cards did not meet the challenge of a fourth unbeaten season.

After three straight wins over Underwood, Griswold, and a major victory over powerful Avoha, the Cardinals met stiff competition in Missouri Valley, Oakland, and Tri-Center. All three teams were at their emotion peak for the defending state champions and defeated the Cardinals. The Cardinals bounced back and soundly defeated Elk Horn and upset second-rated Anita. The season ended with a 0-0 tie with Omaha Holy Name on a mud-soaked field.

Although our record wasn't as impressive as previous seasons, the season was a success. We learned from our defeat--it made us realize that success never comes easy.

The Cardinals, 24-2 for the 72-73 season, played some yo-yo style basketball through the regular season but managed to defeat all their opponents except one.

In tournament action, they appeared strong, winning championships in the Holiday Tourney, the Conference Tourney, and sectional tournament.

In district action, the Cards met Farragut, the Corner Conference Champ, in first round action at Farragut. Up for what they expected to be a tough contest, the Cards put the Admirals away handily, 74-47.

Moving into final action in Council Bluffs, the Cards met Underwood, whom they had previously beaten twice in regular season play. Perhaps a little overconfident, the Cards found it tough going against the Eagles. Unable to "put it together," the third consecutive state tourney berth they had sought slipped by.

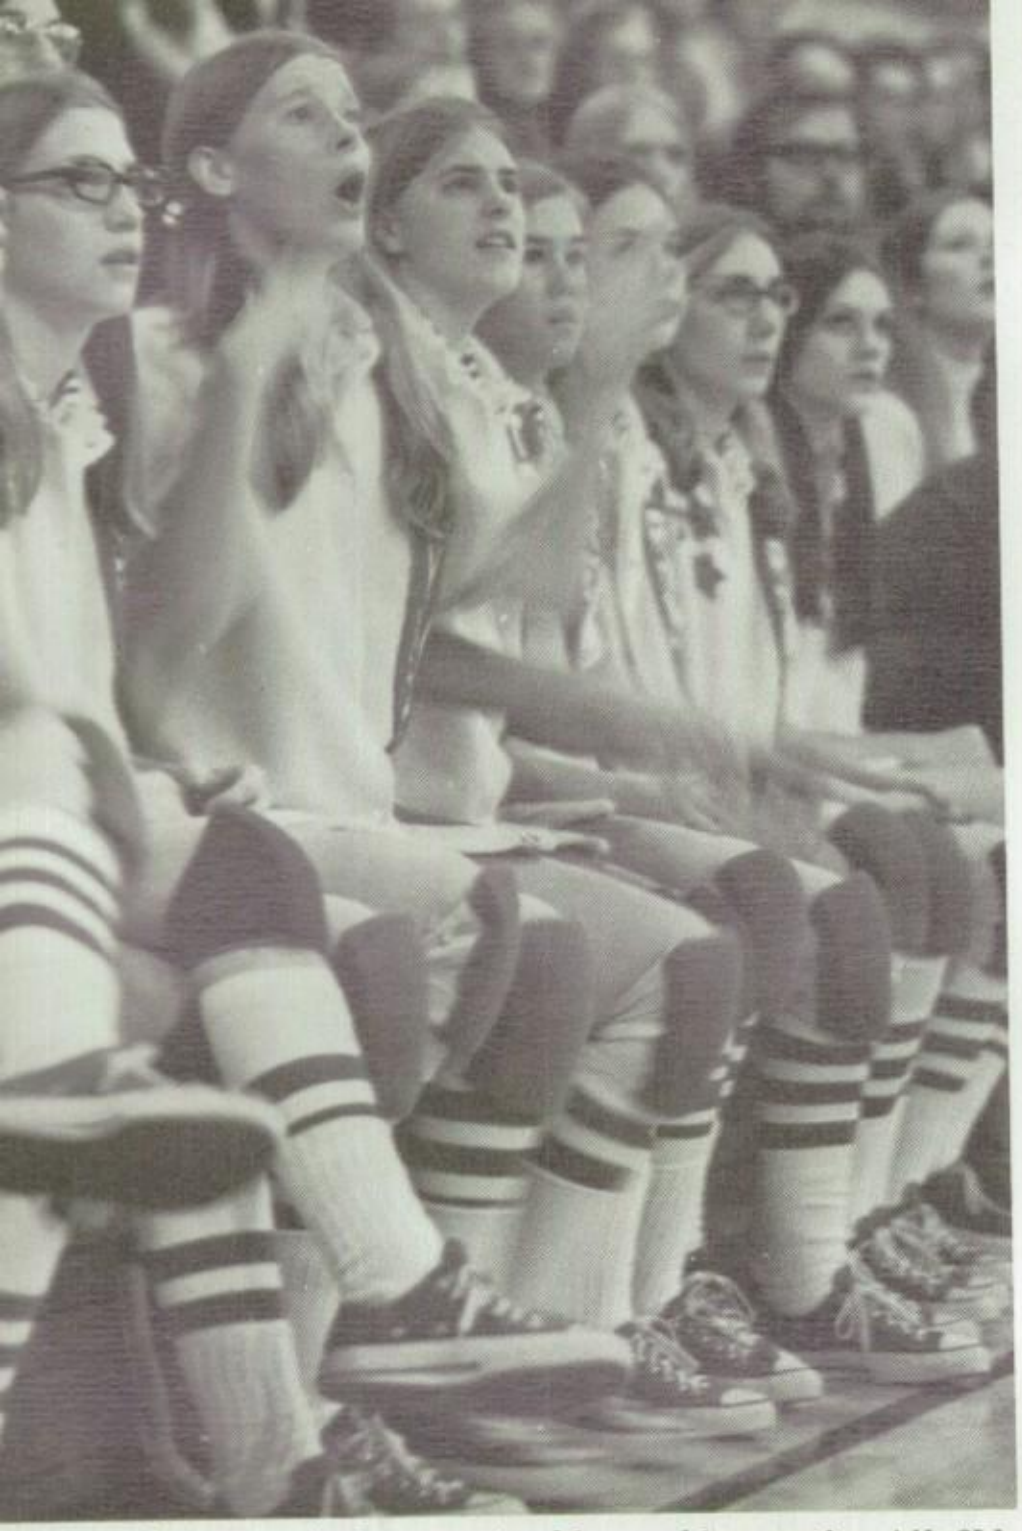
Tourney Competition Than Ever before—

The Cardettes were 16-10 for the 72-73 basketball season. Off to a rather slow start initially, the Cardettes progressed steadily. The girls maintained an excellent attitude and offered maximum effort in practice and competition. By mid-season, they were able to capture 1st place in the Holiday Tournament at Carson. This victory boosted their confidence and the season started rolling.

The Cardettes "put it together" to battle a strong Elkhorn team in outstanding fashion. Despite their loss, their performance gave them further confidence as they entered tournament competition.

They defeated Nishna Valley and Lewis Central to take 3rd place in sectional action at Malvern. In addition, they narrowly missed defeating the ultimate district champion, Glenwood, by only four points.

At district in Council Bluffs, the Cardettes won 1st and 2nd round games against Malvern and Tri-Center. In the district finals, they were beaten by Glenwood. However, they could be well proud of their 2nd place finish as it marked the first time the Cardettes had ever advanced that far.



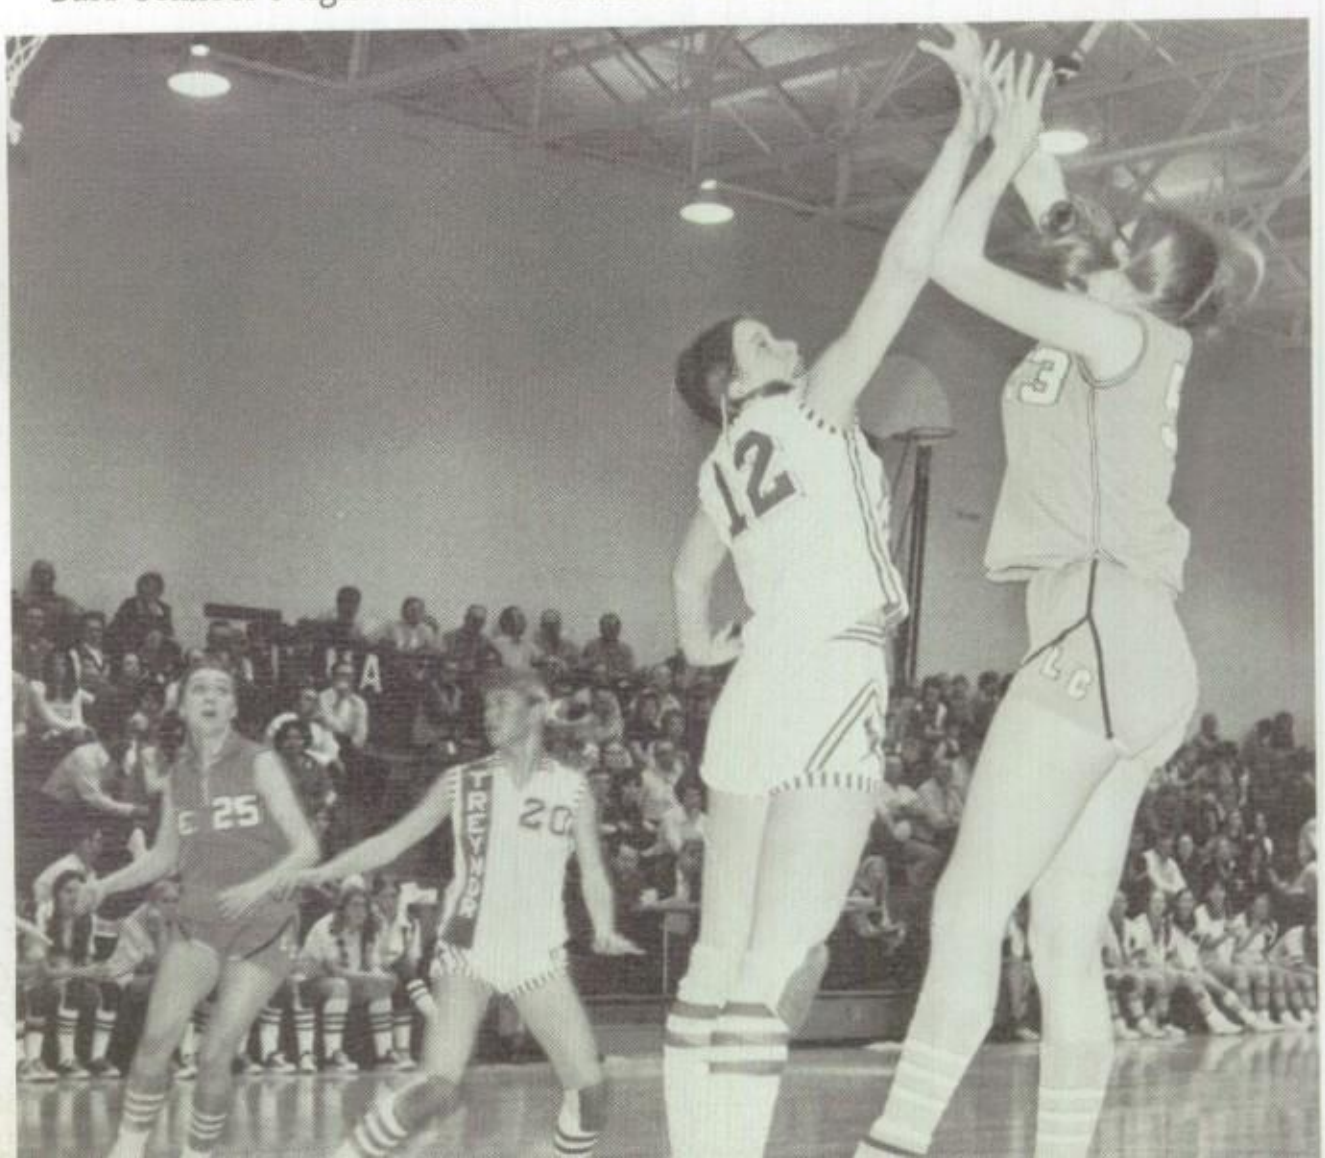
Spirited Cris Buckelew received honorable mention All-SW Iowa.

Anxious Cardettes await start of a sectional game at Malvern.

Their Enthusiasm

Joetta outmaneuvers a Woodbine guard.

Barb Schnoor's tight defense contributed to Cardette win over Lewis Central.



Diane Parker shoots for two points.

Leads to District Finals

Patty Schmidt, promising junior forward, received honorable mention All-SW Iowa.

Sophomore Joyce Anderson goes in for a lay-up.

Senior guard Laura Horn received Honorable Mention All-SW Iowa.

1972-73 Card Wrestlers

The 1972-73 Treynor Card wrestling team, coached by new coach Mike Beaman, wrestled their way to a 1-9-1 record. Because of a lack of depth, Coach Beaman had to utilize the underclassmen. From their ranks, he built his young squad.

Inexperience wss the major factor in the Card's unimpressive record; but they promise to be strong contenders in the years ahead.

The highlight of the season came when Mark Hoegh and Mark Reinders grappled their way to the State Tournament, where Mark Reinders, a junior, finished sixth.

With added experience and more depth expected next year, the Cards have an encouraging future. In addition, a competitive junior high wrestling program initiated by Coach Beaman, should strengthen the Treynor mat program in the years ahead.

Boys' Track

The Cardinal track team won two invitational meets to highlight the 1973 track season. The Cards won the Class C Cyclone Relays at Harlan and the Dane Relays at Elk-Horn. Treynor finished fifth in the Western Iowa Conference meet held at Griswold.

Olli Melanen set a new school record in the two-mile run with a time of 9:51.8. State meet qualifiers were Olli Melanen--2 mile run; Jim Murphy--High Jump; and Jim Stewart--180 yard low hurdles. Melanen finished 3rd in the Class C state meet, running 10:12, while Murphy was second in the high jump with a career-best jump of 6'0".

Conference champions included Melanen in the two-mile, Murphy in the high jump and 120-yard high hurdles, while Jim Stewart was 2nd in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Field Events

Girls' Track

The Cardette track team took another stride upward this season with a squad of 20 girls, which provided the depth and balance that has been lacking in the past. Still predominantly underclassmen, team strengths were in the sprints and sprint relays, highlighted by the 440-relay championship at the Lady Dane Relays. Promising 440-and 880-runners and hurdlers began to blossom at season's end, leaving great hopes for next season.

Girls' Softball

THS added a new dimension to its athletic program this year with the introduction of a girls' softball team. Although only in their first year of competition, the Cardettes played on a varsity level with a full conference slate of nine games. The team, comprised of sixteen underclassmen, should be ready for some top-flight action after this past summer of experience. With continued development, the Cardettes should have a promising fall season.

Golf

Card golfers, coached by Mr. Leo Carroll, had a 2-0 dual meet season record. They defeated Tri-Center and Thomas Jefferson. The Cards placed fourth in both the Conference and sectional tournaments.

Graduation

Forty-one graduating seniors received their diplomas from Board President Gerald Goos on Thursday evening, May 24.

A threat of showers and cool temperatures resulted in the Commencement exercises being held in the high school gymnasium rather than outside.

Addresses were presented by honor students Don Morse, Reed Olsen, and Dave Taylor. Principal Jerry Figg announced various scholarship awards and Mr. L. L. Haack, Superintendent, presented the class. A red rose, the class flower, was presented to the parents of the graduate as he received his diploma.

Musical selections were presented by the band, chorus, and Ken Bohrer and Jan Lemons.

You see things as they are and; ask 'Why?'
But I dream things that never were, and ask

You see things as they are and; ask 'Why?'

Today's Minute Forms Tomorrow's Hour

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven." All of life's activities are governed by a mature Father Time, who treads neither slow nor fast--just constantly in his march to eternity.

The advice to "hurry, hurry" or "walk, don't run" simply causes Time to smile at such human frivolity, for "The future is something everyone reaches at the rate of sixty minutes an hour, whatever he does, whoever he is."

However, realizing that time is precious becomes one's salvation in a hum-drum existence. Time cannot be preserved, but it can be made to preserve the person in memories and deeds.

Time is the mold for our deeds, which are done and gone in time--but forever etched on the records of eternity.
